

AGN EUROPE LTD
NEWS RELEASE

Date: September 2016

High standard of presentations and real-life case studies at AGN Europe's annual IFRS Seminar

The AGN Europe IFRS Seminar was successfully held at the Titanic Comfort Mitte Hotel in Berlin, Germany on 30 September 2016.

A high number of 40 AGN delegates attended the seminar, representing 26 member firms in 15 countries. The event in Berlin began with a drinks reception and followed by dinner at the AGN's German member firm Becker Büttner Held (BBH).

The seminar was moderated by the Chair of AGN, Liam McQuaid, who welcomed all to the event and gave a brief update on AGN's latest developments. A presentation followed by Andreas Weinberger of the German AGN member firm Wirtschaftstreuhand on 'What's new in the IFRS World'.

Carsten Ernst, of AGN's German member firm Wirtschaftstreuhand, then presented on 'Provisions under IAS 37'. Furthermore, Scott Walters of US AGN member firm Daszkal Bolton also presented on 'What's New in the US GAAP World'.

Pers Aswani of UK member firm Hazlems Fenton gave a presentation on 'Audit of IFRS Group financial statements' and the seminar was concluded with a presentation from Pierre-Olivier Cointe of French member firm Caderas Martin on 'IFRS 16 Main Practical Differences from Current Practice'.

The AGN Europe Education Committee has hosted this event for several years, with growing numbers in participation.

Liam McQuaid comments: "The success of the AGN 2016 IFRS Seminar is a fitting endorsement of the AGN's commitment to excellence by providing a forum to assist members in refining their IFRS knowledge. The Seminar compliments the other accounting training tools available to AGN member firms including AGN webinars, videos, IFRS help line and Technical Newsletters."
