Equipping future leaders with an international perspective

Future Leaders are invited to join AGN in Vienna for an afternoon on 27 September prior to the IFRS / Tax seminar

A great chance to learn, connect and develop the necessary skills to be leaders in your firm.

Benefits of attendance include:

- Deepen the understanding in your firm of new business opportunities that AGN can offer
- Widen the network of potential work referrers that your firm engages with
- Broaden the international horizons of your top talent
- Create a succession plan for the AGN relationship
- Reward/motivate a key individual

The session itself will upskill an individual NextGen by:

- Profiling their individual leadership and business development style
- Help them clarify what their best BD contribution can be
- Work in multi cultural, diverse teams
- Enhance their networking skills.

If you are booking a flight already, please note we plan to start this session at 15:00, so please leave plenty of time to arrive by then!

Registration will open soon!
