

Edelstein Promotes Jesse Gillett to Partner

[Boston, MA]: At Edelstein's annual State of the Firm, we announced the promotion of Jesse Gillett to Partner, effective January 1, 2022.

Jesse joined Edelstein in 2015 and is part of our Business Valuation & Forensic Accounting team. Prior to joining Edelstein, Jesse was a consultant at a boutique business advisory and forensic accounting firm in Boston. Prior to that, Jesse worked at an audit practice at a big 4 accounting firm.

In 2020, the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA) announced that Jesse Gillett received the Forensic and Valuation Services Standing Ovation Award. The AICPA's Standing Ovation Recognition Program acknowledged 22 outstanding young CPAs who hold the credentials of Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF) or Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) and have shown exceptional personal achievement in the Forensic Accounting and Business Valuation areas.

"Since joining Edelstein 6 years ago, Jesse has proven himself as a leader and mentor. He has demonstrated the ability to work with clients, attorneys and colleagues to resolve complex issues with competent solutions." says Marc Bello, Partner and Business Valuation & Forensic Accounting Practice Leader at Edelstein & Company LLP. "I look forward to welcoming Jesse into the Edelstein partnership and continue working together, as we grow and develop the next phase of our Business Valuation and Forensic Accounting team."

We congratulate Jesse and look forward to the skills he will bring to our Partner group.
