AGN INTERNATIONAL, A WORLDWIDE ASSOCIATION of separate and independent accounting and consulting firms welcomes a new member firm in the Netherlands, DK Accountants & Adviseurs.

The firm, initially called 'De Koning Accountants & Adviseurs' was established in Ede in 1995. After a short period of time, it moved to Veenendaal and changed name into 'DK Accountants & Adviseurs'. Through the years DK opened several new branch offices in Tiel, Houten, Putten and Druten. Recently the firm opened an office in Amsterdam to serve their international clients.

The firm is currently owned by 9 partners who look after 50 staff, including 8 qualified ones. The Board is formed by 4 of the partners.

DK has expertise in areas including Financial accounting, Taxes and legal advice, Financial planning, Payroll accounting, Corporate finance / Corporate recovery and Financial (interim) management and the firm specialises in manufacturing/distribution, retail, real estate and investors.

Nicholas Blake, CEO of AGN says: "The admission of DK Accountants & Adviseurs demonstrates the continuing policy of AGN to expand membership but only thru the appointment of quality firms. DK Accountants & Adviseurs provides quality services to clients in the central and northern part of the country and compliments the geographical coverage by our current member. This will certainly benefit the clients of our member firms worldwide."
