AGN INTERNATIONAL, A WORLDWIDE ASSOCIATION of separate and independent accounting and consulting firms welcomes a new member firm in Saudi Arabia, Riyadh, Hamad M Al-Aufi Chartered Accountant & Financial Consultancy and Administrative Consultancy

The firm was established approximately 24 years ago in 1990 with the ultimate goal to develop a group of accountants, auditors and administrators that will provide truly professional services up to the satisfaction of the clients taking into account the resource constraints.

Hamad M Al-Aufi, a sole-partner firm with 12 qualified accountants and auditors based in Riyadh offers a variety of services ranging from the inspections and review of accounts, the assessment of zakat and tax for clients and the provision of administrative services and consulting for restructuring and development, both at the administrative and the financial and accounting level.

The firm provide services in various areas (commercial, manufacturing, industrial, medical or contracting) and mainly specialises in auditing and assurance, accounting, zakat and taxation.

Nicholas Blake, CEO of AGN says: “It is a pleasure to know that AGN’s resources in the commercially most important country in the Middle East has now been doubled by the admission of the Al-Aufi firm. This demonstrates the continuing attention within AGN that is being paid to member expansion only on a quality basis”
