

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Markowitz, Fenelon & Bank, LLP Joins AGN International

Denver, CO, January 15, 2015 -- AGN International – North America, Inc., one of the world's leading associations of independent accounting and consulting firms, announces that Markowitz, Fenelon & Bank, LLP (www.mfbcpa.com), with four offices on eastern Long Island, (Riverhead, East Hampton, Southampton and Sag Harbor) New York, has been admitted into membership.

AGN-NA (<http://na.agn.org>) is part of AGN International, Ltd. (www.agn.org), which has 186 accounting firm members in 89 countries throughout the world. AGN sets rigorous criteria for admission to the association and provides outstanding continuing professional education and intra-member firm collaboration to help all member firms serve clients with excellence and maintain adherence to the highest professional standards.

Markowitz, Fenelon & Bank, LLP (MFB) was formed in 1998 from the merger of three prominent CPA firms on Eastern Long Island. MFB staff currently stands at 45; the firm provides a full range of tax and auditing/accounting services and also provides wealth management services for clients through its affiliation with Raymond James.

"AGN membership gives all our team members a continuous opportunity to collaborate on client service technical issues as well as access to continuous learning and skills development," said Thomas P. Terry, partner in MFB's Riverhead office, adding that the firm also gains the ability to service Long Island businesses with global accounting, tax and international operations needs

"AGN-NA is pleased that the largest accounting firm on Eastern Long Island sees the value of improving client service by collaboration with other progressive US firms and firms throughout the world. MFB professionals will contribute to the considerable knowledge resources of the association as well," said Gary Katz, current AGN-NA chair, and managing partner of Logan Katz LLP, member firm based in Ottawa, Ontario.
